

I owe you a huge apology

Subject: I owe you a huge apology

From: Miki Payne <Miki@hbdrollinger.com>

Date: 03/02/2017 07:14 AM

To: "mark@farmermmark.com" <mark@farmermmark.com>

CC: Donald Duckworth <duckworth.donald@gmail.com>

Hi Mark,

This is Miki of Drollinger Properties. You offered me a wonderful opportunity to meet with you in December to help me learn from you about Farmer's Markets and how to help them succeed. I know you said your focus and mission is on the farmers and that will be good to learn about.

My excuse for my tardy response is foot surgery December 15. No walking or driving till end of January...and still a slow and tedious recovery. I made it to our Sunday Westchester Farmer's market a week or so ago and it is drowning. I am working with mom's groups etc. to figure out how we can get the word out, make it more appealing, but I would really like to speak with you. I am also going to do some brainstorming with my Torrance Market, but they have such a different situation. Sadly, my Saturdays are booked for the next two weeks or so....although I might be able to sneak down by 10 on this Saturday...if I could make it, would you be available?

My cell is (310) 710-6713.

So I sit on the "3 man board" of the SUNDAY Westchester Market along with my friend Don (copied above). We are both very new to the Farmer's Market world and we need to round out our knowledge. We won't broadcast our conversations with you, understanding the small FM Family you work with her in our area. Our goal is simply to learn from a varied group of teachers. Thank you for helping us understand your world.

Miki

Miki Payne
Operations Manager

Drollinger
P R O P E R T I E S
8929 S. Sepulveda Blvd.
Suite 130
Los Angeles, CA 90045
(310) 417-8048 Ext. 15